

Third International Conference of the Nordic Wittgenstein Society

Wittgenstein, the Philosophy of Education and the Education of Philosophy

Teaching and various forms of instruction, training and learning are recurrent themes in the writings of Ludwig Wittgenstein, making his philosophy a rich source for our understanding of the relationship between education and learning. The general aim of the conference is to explore a Wittgensteinian approach to the interplay between philosophical method, philosophy of education and pedagogy in general.

Invited Speakers:

Steinar Bøyum, University of Bergen

Anniken Greve, University of Tromsø

Paul Standish, University of London
