1§ Opening of the Meeting

- Meeting opened by Hanne Appelqvist at 16:08.

2§ Declaration of a quorum

- Meeting is quorate.

3§ Approval of the agenda.

- Agenda is approved.

4§ Topical issues

- P.M.S Hacker's Nordic Wittgenstein lecture (26.11.2025).
  - There was a very good turnout of up to 130 participants and the board considers the lecture a great success. The lecture was recorded, but will not be published just yet, as the talk was based on a chapter in Hacker's upcoming collection of essays.
- Conferences and other events planned for 2026.
  - "Wittgenstein and Ancient Philosophy" (29.6–1.7.2025). This conference will be organized in collaboration with Lassi Jakola and Vasso Kindi in Athens, and is mostly funded by the National and Capodistrian University of Athens.
  - Martin Gustafsson will co-organize a conference on Ordinary Language Philosophy in Vilnius in October.

5§ Other issues

- Lassi Jakola reports on the status of Nordic Wittgenstein Review. The present issue of 2025 (14) will be closed soon, and a new issue will be opened for 2026.
- Philosophical discussion on the pros and cons of LLM:s and the use of AI.

6§ Next meeting

- Next meeting will be organized in mid-March.

7§ Closing of Meeting

- Meeting closed at 16:50.
- After the meeting Hanne Appelqvist updated on the status of the edited volume based on 2024 NWS conference “Wittgenstein: Aspects and Interpretations”, which is edited by her, Martin Gustafsson and Lassi Jakola.
