

KEYS TO SUCCESS

Intensive course on career planning

0.25 credits

30.10.2003

At Mikro Auditorium, Kiinanmyllynkatu 13

SESSION I

“Academic career: drift or ferocious ambition?”

Chair Prof. Kalervo Väänänen

12.00 Prof. Mark Johnson: Planning a scientific career - personal ethics do matter

12.20 Dr. Pia Roos-Mattjus: Doing a doctoral thesis abroad

12.40 Dr. Johanna Ivaska: Post-doctoral research: steps towards independence

13.00 Dr. Klaus Elenius: Research career after a post-doc period

13.20 Dr. Jukka Westermark: Establishing a research group and a lab of your own

13.40 Prof. Lea Sistonen: How to balance teaching and research: a five-year professorship

14.00 Prof. Eva-Mari Aro: What does it take to succeed in basic research?

Coffee break

SESSION II

“Different prospects: Public funding or biocompanies”

Chair Prof. Mikko Nikinmaa

14.45 Dr. Sakari Karjalainen: Research career development and Ministry of Education

15.15 Prof. Eero Vuorio: Research career development and Academy of Finland

15.45 Managing director Anders Laurén: Aspects of career planning - A recruiter's point of view

16.05 Dr. Mikko Unkila: Doing research in a private company

16.25 President, CEO Risto Lammintausta: What kind of know-how are new biocompanies looking for

16.45 Vice President Timo Veromaa: Managing research and development in a Company

UNIVERSITY OF TURKU

ÅBO AKADEMI

For more information and for registration by 24.10.2003, please contact
sajjaliisa.pursiheimo@utu.fi
Tel. 02 333 5761

Arranged by TurkuBioNet

Biological Interactions graduate school
Drug Discovery Graduate School
Graduate School of Bioorganic and Medicinal Chemistry
In Vitro Diagnostics
National Graduate School in Informational and Structural Biology
Postgraduate School of Oral Health Sciences
Turku Graduate School of Biomedical Sciences
Turku Graduate School of Clinical Sciences